SEO Changelog: Is Crab Island Family Friendly? (Blog Post)

URL: https://crabislandtikitoursdestin.com/is-crab-island-family-friendly/ | WP post ID 585 (block editor) | Last modified September 5, 2026 | Audit date: October 29, 2026 | Page 21 of the site queue

Method: content, headings, links and SEO meta were pulled from WordPress through the site connector. The live URL could not be loaded from the audit environment.

1. Summary

Item	Current state
Role	Answers "is crab island family friendly" and "is crab island safe for kids". Parents are a large share of private charter buyers, so this post feeds the Charter page directly.
SEO title	Is Crab Island Family Friendly? | Destin Family Guide (53 characters, good)
Meta description	141 characters. Keep.
Body copy	About 800 words. Friendly and clear, but it leaves out what parents care about most on your boat: the bathroom, shade and child-size life jackets.
Category	Uncategorized
Internal links	1 link (to post 773, which is being redirected) plus FareHarbor.

2. Critical fixes

#	Issue	Fix
1	P1 Stray "/button" text	A paragraph containing only "/button" sits above the booking button, left over from typing a block shortcut. Delete it.
2	P1 Likely two H1s	The post body starts with its own H1, and Hello Elementor's single-post template normally prints the post title as an H1 too. Check the live page. If there are two, remove the H1 block from the body.
3	P1 Key family selling points missing	The post never mentions the onboard bathroom, the shade under the tiki roof or that child-size life jackets are carried, all stated elsewhere on the site. Add a section (section 5).
4	P1 Link to a post being redirected	"What to Bring to Crab Island" links to post 773. Point it to /about-crab-island/what-to-bring-to-crab-island/.
5	P2 What's included list	"cooler, Bluetooth speakers, shaded seating, inflatable mat, paddle board, and more" lists a mat and paddle board. Settle the onboard toys question (see What to Bring changelog) and match it here.

6	P2 Vague and odd claims	"many local captains consider Crab Island one of the best family attractions in Destin" (who?), and "floating restaurants" (elsewhere "floating vendors"). The bold safety point "Crab Island is not an actual island" doesn't explain the risk; say what matters: deeper channel edges and boat traffic.

5. Content rewrites (paste-ready)

H2: Is Crab Island Family Friendly? The Short Answer

> Yes, if you plan for it. Most of the Crab Island sandbar is 2 to 4 feet deep with a soft sand bottom, so kids can stand, splash and float while adults stay close. The things to watch are boat traffic, the deeper channel edges and the sun. A morning weekday trip on a boat with shade and a bathroom makes it much easier.

H3: Boat Traffic and Channel Edges (replaces the "not an actual island" point)

> Crab Island isn't a beach. It's a sandbar in open water with boats coming and going all day. The edges drop off quickly into the channel, where the current is stronger. Keep young children within arm's reach, keep them away from moving boats, and stay on the shallow side. Read more about how deep the water is at Crab Island.

H2: What Makes a Private Boat Easier With Kids (new)

> - A real bathroom onboard. Most rental pontoons don't have one, which ends a lot of family trips early.
> - Full shade under the tiki roof for naps, snacks and sunburn breaks.
> - Child-size life jackets carried on every trip.
> - A captain who anchors in shallow water away from the channel, so parents can watch the kids instead of the boat.
> - Your schedule. If the kids are done after three hours, head back.
>
> See our private Crab Island charters, or compare a tiki boat vs a pontoon rental.

H2: Crab Island With Kids: FAQs (new)

> Is there a minimum age? (Owner to answer, including infants.)
>
> Do you have life jackets for kids? Yes, in child sizes. Bring your own if your child is used to a specific one.
>
> Is there a bathroom on the boat? Yes, a full bathroom onboard.
>
> Can grandparents come too? Yes. There's shaded seating for everyone, and the water is shallow enough to wade in.

Wording fixes

- "many local captains consider Crab Island one of the best family attractions in Destin" to "Our captains see families out there every day."
- "floating restaurants" to "floating food vendors".
- "many areas of Crab Island offer waist-deep water" to "most of the sandbar is 2 to 4 feet deep" (matches the depth guide).

- Remove the bold from the H2 "Is Crab Island actually family friendly?" (headings are already bold).
